Permanent Supportive Housing

Southside Behavioral Health

What is it?

- A stable living situation is the first step to recovery.
- Permanent Supportive Housing is designed to increase accessibility and affordability for housing.
- It is intended to reduce homeless populations in communities, target those most vulnerable (mentally ill, frequent crisis intervention utilizers, state hospital discharges, etc.) within our area to assist them with stable living accommodations.

“The program gives you insight on life, sets you up, and helps you along the way.”

- Jennifer,
Permanent
Supportive Housing
Recipient

For Rentees
