JUSTICE FOR ALL

How We Can Help.

Are you in an abusive relationship? We may be able to help you with a protective order, housing, health care, custody, child support, public benefits, consumer issues and other civil legal problems.

Has your landlord told you to move because of family abuse against you in your home? We can help you fight eviction.

Do you have other family legal problems as a result of family abuse? We can help you with custody, child support and no-fault divorce.

Do you need help supporting yourself and your children after leaving your abuser? We can help you obtain the SNAP, TANF, Medicaid, and Social Security benefits for which you are eligible.

Virginia Legal Aid Society provides free legal advice, information, and representation in civil cases to low income persons in Central, Southside, and Western Tidewater Virginia.

If you have experienced domestic violence, you are facing many challenges at once. There are many ways a legal services professional can help you.

Call today to see how we can help you.

The call and the assistance are FREE.
